ABOUT OUR MEXICAN COOKERY

Our food is carefully prepared according to recipes most popular in the southwestern United States. It is mildly seasoned to bring out the finest flavor of the food. Our own special hot chili sauce is available for those who like their Mexican food very hot.

Only the finest quality ingredients are used, chosen personally at the markets by a member of our staff. All dishes are prepared in our own kitchens. You are invited to inspect our kitchens at any time and your comments on food and service will be appreciated by the management.
